

Your support will help launch the first low-barrier Youth Drop-In Center in Wheaton in the fall of 2021!

The Montgomery County Collaboration Council works in conjunction with community-based partners and County agencies to affect change for the children, youth, and families of Montgomery County.

The Reengagement Initiative is an approach that brings together a collaborative of agencies providing outreach, case management, education, training, resource referrals, and employment services/training for youth ages 16-24 who have dropped out of or stopped attending school. These youth in many cases face bouts of homelessness and disproportionality identify as Black, Brown and LGBTQIA.

MOCO RECONNECT
Resources for young people to succeed

- ✓ Safe and welcoming for LGBTQIA youth
- ✓ Showers, laundry, and other basic necessities
- ✓ Entry point to the Montgomery County Continuum of Care
- ✓ Informed and co-designed by community partners and a Youth Advisory Board

We are seeking community-minded partners who value equitable, welcoming, and inclusive support for youth through innovative and holistic approaches.
